Foreword

So that your thoughts of the Class of '59 may linger, and the memories of our high school days may remain with us always, we, the Class of '59, wish to present our yearbook.

As an expression of our deepest gratitude for the interest you've taken in our class, your guidance toward better perspectives and the generous devotion of your time, we, the class of '59, dedicate to you, Mr. Brennan, our yearbook.

In appreciation for your patience and understanding, and the sincere interest you have taken in us, not only as a class, but also as individuals, we, the class of '59 dedicate our yearbook to you also, Mr. Brasure.

Dedication

We offer our sincere thanks to you, Mrs. Lamont, for the long hours, the patient help, and the deep understanding you have given us.

Superintendent's Message

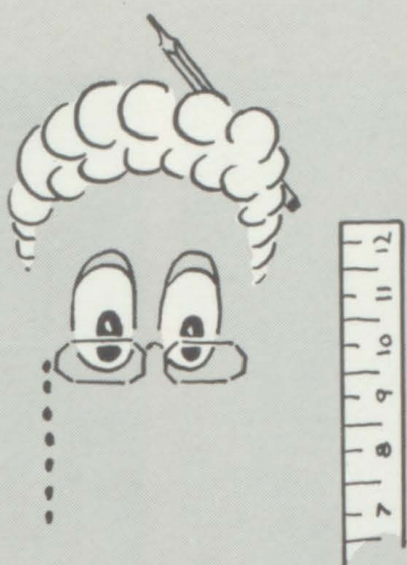

Let no pleasure tempt you, no profit allure you to do anything which you know to be evil. If you abide by these truths, a good conscience will always be yours.

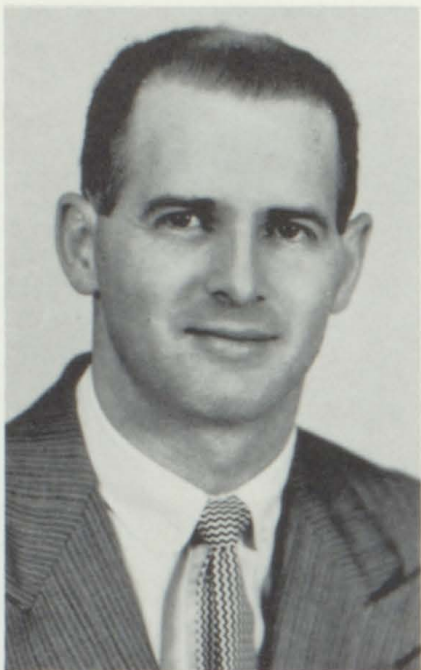

Principal's Message

The community of citizens that know you so well will find a double aesthetic pleasure in reading your yearbook and remembering each class member for his interesting personal contributions to the school society.
